

The kick-off of the new SDC flagship project in local governance in Moldova, “Ma implic” (“I engage”), was done during a 2 days’ planning workshop. Challenges are high: weak municipalities unable to provide sustainable public services, reluctant government to further advance on the decentralization agenda and a disillusioned population. The project and its committed team are ready to reverse the dynamic and to have empowered people and strong municipalities!