

Florian Klingel
Water and Sanitation Specialist

Florian Klingel is an experienced water supply, sanitation and water resources management expert. He has been involved as project manager or technical expert in development, research and infrastructure projects, and carried out activities for project management, project planning, evaluation, technical design, construction supervision, backstopping, knowledge management, networking, capacity development, policy development, and scientific research.

Key data

Nationality	German
Qualification (Institute)	Rural and Environmental Engineer (Dipl.-Ing. EPFL)
Working languages	German, English, French, Spanish
Years of Experience	20
Country experience and regional expertise	Sub-Saharan Africa: Senegal Asia: Vietnam, Philippines, Thailand, India, Tajikistan Americas: Nicaragua, Honduras, Peru Europe: Switzerland, Germany, Moldova, Kosovo, Ukraine
Select projects, roles, achievements and publications	Project Director, Water and Sanitation Project Moldova (ApaSan), Phase 3 Backstopper, Rural Water and Sanitation Support Project Kosovo (RWSSP), Phase V Backstopper, Rural Water and Sanitation Project, Ferghana Valley, Tajikistan Backstopper to SDC's Global Programme Water Main author: Guidebook for the implementation of decentralized water supply systems in Moldova Co-author: Super Truck Trump: Faecal Sludge Trucks
Key clients	Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation (SDC)
Affiliations and networks	Skat representative in the Sustainable Sanitation Alliance Member and facilitator (on behalf of SDC) in SDC's water network RésEAU

Contact:

Email: Florian.Klingel@skat.ch

Phone: +41 (0)71 228 54 54

Swiss Resource Centre and
• on the 1st of April 2011
Caption: Florian_Skat_CV

Description:

Dimensions: x