

[avia_codeblock_placeholder uid="0"]

Anne Sophie Aublet

Water Specialist

Areas of expertise:

- tropical farming
- rural water and environmental sanitation
- food security
- project management
- capacity building

Anne`s CV

Anne Sophie Aublet is a dedicated water professional who combines analytic and organizational skills for project work and support to network development around irrigation, water, sanitation and hygiene in urban and rural areas.

Key data

Qualification (Institute)	MSc Tropical Farming- water management option (Montpellier Sup Agro, Institute for Higher Education in Tropical Agri-Food Sciences and Rural Development, France)
Working languages	French (native), English (advanced), German & Spanish (elementary)
Years of Experience	14 +
Nationality	French
Country experience and regional expertise	Africa: Benin, Burundi, Chad, Rwanda, Madagascar, Mauritania Asia: Cambodia Americas: Peru
Select projects, roles, achievements and publications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Backstopping Mandate to SDC Global Program Water: evaluation of SDC partners, moderation of workshop or e-discussions, conceptual work, project design & evaluation • Swiss Water Partnership: secretariat, including: strategic development of the network (including business model development) and thematic support to members • SDC water and sanitation project in the Great Lakes: project design and backstopping • Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation (SDC)
Key clients	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Helvetas Swiss Intercooperation (Swiss Water Partnership)
Affiliations and networks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Aguasán Community of Practice

LinkedIn

Contact