

[avia_codeblock_placeholder uid="0"]

Support to the development of NETWAS training programmes

2 workshops were conducted - 1 to develop proposals for a new course on the involvement of the private sector in the provision of water supply and sanitation services, and the 2. to review the training activities of NETWAS and to make recommendations for the strengthening and extension of this programme.

Country:

Kenya

Project Period:

1999-2000

 Swiss Resource Centre and
Services provided:

Knowledge Sharing, Networking, Training and Capacity Development

Name of the Staff involved and functions performed:

Adrian Coad, Senior Waste Management Specialist

Name of Client(s):

NETWAS International

Description of the Project:

One was a workshop to develop proposals for a new course on the involvement of the private sector in the provision of water supply and sanitation services. The other was to review the training activities of NETWAS and to make recommendations for the strengthening and extension of this programme.